

OSHA Reporting Requirements

Federal Alabama Florida Georgia Mississippi	OSHA Fact Sheet	Federal Recordkeeping Rule 1904	How to Report a Fatality or Severe Injury 800-321-OSHA
State	Current Law	Status	Reporting Contact Info
Indiana	620 IAC 1-1-1	Same as Federal OSHA	317-232-2693 (8am to 4:30pm, M-F), 800-321-OSHA (After hours, weekends and holidays)
Kentucky	803 KAR 2:180	Kentucky’s reporting requirements are at least as effective as the OSHA requirements and requires that all fatalities and inpatient hospitalizations of three or more workers be reported within 8 hours. Amputations, loss of any eye, and hospitalization of fewer than three workers must be reported within 72 hours. Kentucky also defines amputation and loss of an eye slightly differently than OSHA.	502-564-3070
North Carolina	13 N.C.A.C 07A.0301	Same as Federal OSHA	800-NC-LABOR
South Carolina	SC Code of Regulations 71-304	Same as Federal OSHA	803-896-7672
Tennessee	Rule 0800-01-01-.03	Same as Federal OSHA	800-249-8510
Virginia	16VAC25-85-1904	Virginia’s reporting requirements are at least as effective as the OSHA requirements and requires that all fatalities, inpatient hospitalizations, amputations, or the loss of an eye be reported within 8 hours.	800-858-0397

For more information please contact your safety consultant.

