

Required Medical Provider Panels by State

Currently, three of FFVA Mutual’s licensed states (GA, TN and VA) require that employers provide an injured employee a current and valid panel that includes an approved list of medical providers.

State [WC links]	Panel Requirements
Alabama	N/A*
Florida	N/A*
Georgia	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>FFVA Mutual sends completed panel to policyholder.</li> <li>The panel must consist of at least 6 non-associated physicians but is not limited to a minimum of six.</li> <li>The panel must include an orthopedic physician, a minority physician and no more than 2 physicians from industrial clinics.</li> <li>The panel must also be posted at the workplace location.</li> </ul>
Indiana	N/A*
Kentucky	N/A*
Mississippi	N/A*
North Carolina	N/A*
South Carolina	N/A*
Tennessee	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>FFVA Mutual sends completed panel to policyholder.</li> <li>The panel must include at least 3 providers or more, with no more than 4 physicians affiliated in a practice.</li> <li>The panel may include 3 physicians.</li> <li>Panel must be given to the employee at the time of the injury.</li> <li>Upon receipt of a new claim FFVA Mutual also mails a panel to the employee.</li> </ul>
Virginia	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>FFVA Mutual sends completed panel to policyholder.</li> <li>Virginia law requires that an employer offer a panel of at least three physicians to the injured employee for the purpose of providing medical treatment to work related injuries or diseases.</li> <li>If the employer wants to direct care, a panel must be posted.</li> <li>Documentation of the panel offering to the injured employee is important.</li> <li>When filing the first report of injury (FROI), employers should provide a copy of the panel offered to, and signed by the employee.</li> </ul>

*These states do not have statutory panel posting requirements. If assistance is needed in identifying an initial treatment facility, please call 800-226-0666 or contact your claim adjuster directly

For a new or updated panel, email claims-panels@ffvamutual.com.